Lots in Translation

To begin with my first message as a President in SNAPSHOTS Issue I, I would like to share with you my story. In many occasions, a president can be a story teller, an ever-committed learner, a decision-maker, and even a coach. Among many of my roles over the past six months, I have been a translator, and indeed this is who I am and what I love to be in everyday life.

One may think that translation is about language, speaking or writing. In retrospect of the early days when I needed to think in a management role and yet as a translator, I would say it is about a caring attitude to interpret others' need, an open mind to understand the contexts and positioning and a courage to create, elevate and yet be able to justify. Most importantly, may it be the unknown or the possibilities, passion or ideals, we are always daring to reach out and translate for the better. Indeed, if there are lots in translation, it can be said to be out of an attitude to Care to Aspire, Dare to Inspire (常關懷 • 敢行動) that motivates 2015 board of directors to navigate the uncharted waters in our Jayceettes Miles, the brand new initiative to encourage members to track and explore every possibilities in JC.

You may feel much the same as I do if you read through the pages of SNAPSHOTS. From the First Jayceettes Academy (女青商學院), the First Train the Trainers in Jayceettes history, the first courtesy visit over the past 5 years, the very first social entrepreneur business planning contest for secondary students in Hong Kong, to the invention of the first Jayceettes Miles passport and our support of JCI Movement and value in the first bid book workshop ever held in Taiwan, I hereby express a great token of thanks to all my beloved advisors, a caring and daring board of directors and the unwavering support of Honorary Life President, past presidents, senators and members.

Beyond the limits of "Yes", we found it amazing to see more possibilities in "No" when we believe there must be a way. With an enterprising spirit, may we translate more occasions into opportunities along our Jayceettes Miles.

Hong Kong Young Social Entrepreneur Contest 2015

Messages to Hong Kong Jayceettes

It is already mid-year and this marks the pinnacle of JC life in the year. At this time of year, members of different chapters are busy preparing their projects, and JCI offices around the world are busy preparing different conferences.

In May, JCI Hong Kong has celebrated the 65th Anniversary with much fanfare. It was a memorable night for all attended. I would like to take this chance to thank JCI Hong Kong Jayceettes for their support, and I look forward to your support of the coming conferences.

It is my great pleasure to be National Assigned Executive Officer of JCI Hong Kong Jayceettes in 2015. Also, the "Jayceettes Academy (女青商學院)" providing a serious training opportunities to members to understand the true value of JCI Value, Mission and Vision.

JCIHK 65th Anniversary & Jayceettes in National Study Tour

9 May Jayceettes celebrating JCIHK 65th Anniversary Passion in JC transcends against the time

It was a special day at the Asia World Expo celebrating the 65th Anniversary of JCIHK. With videos showing the history of JCIHK, within which we could see our "Earth Population Awareness Program" in the 70's. One of the epic moments of the event was the recognition of JCIHK members who stay committed to serving the community for +10, +20, +30 and +40 years. It was all the more memorable when all Jayceettes gathered together to celebrate the birthday of President Naomi. May we stay committed to the value and goals we hold dear, and may friendship last forever.

12-15 May Jayceettes in National Education Study Tour of China By Judy Wong

With the intention to enhance our knowledge of Mainland China, 2 Past Presidents Senator Connia Chu Lo, Pauline Lau and I had joined the "National Education Study Trip", organized by HK Federation of Women at The Academy of Chinese Culture in Beijing on May 12 to 15.

A total of 25 women entrepreneurs and administrators from Hong Kong attended the class. During these 4 days, we had a great chance to learn about various topics namely 中國特色政黨制度, 應對媒體與有效交流, 港澳臺問題及基本政策, 國際形勢與我國外交政策, "一帶一路" 主題課程, 周邊安全形勢及我國國防建設. The topics on how to deal with media and the latest cross border economic development proposed by Mainland China were especially the most impressive.

We were also invited to a luncheon hosted by the All-China Women's Federation (全國婦聯) and honored to have met Vice President Dr. Meng Xiaosi. Both parties were glad to exchange views on the important role of female in families, workplace and communities.

The trip was well supported by Liaison Office of The Central People's Government in the HKSAR. We wished to thank their officials who had joined and guided us throughout the trip.

It was a fruitful experience for all of us joining this learning trip. We had gained much more knowledge to better equip ourselves, and get ourselves aware of the speedy growth and new development in Mainland China.

We were so pleased to have met many new friends, and liked to share our learning experiences with our families and friends. We would definitely encourage each one of you to join the National education study if there is any opportunity in future.

Visit at Dialogue in the Dark

Social Enterprise 社會企業 (SE 社企) has been getting more public attention over the past decade. To better educate the younger generation and further promote social innovation to the community, Business Affairs Area this year initiated the first-ever SE Business Plan Competition for secondary schools: Hong Kong Young Social Entrepreneur Contest 2015.

An Opening Ceremony was successfully held on 21 March well-attended by a total of 70 teams, over 400 students from local secondary schools. We were honoured to have Ms Florence Hui, SBS, Under Secretary for Home Affairs as our officiating guest.

By end of April, 10 teams were shortlisted into the 2nd round where students had the chance to visit two existing SEs (Friends & Dialogue Experience). Their afternoon was concluded with a sharing session by SE owners.

What's next?

Final Round cum Closing Ceremony will be held on 28 June in which 5 final teams will give an oral presentation in the morning. Closing Ceremony will start in the afternoon, with the sharing of event ambassador, former journalist Ms. Akina Fong and the representative from Dialogue in the Dark. The champion team will be selected and shall share their winning idea on the date!

First Jayceettes Academy

Jayceettes Academy aims to promote the trainings with an attitude to inspire at every encounter.

Let's see our highlights in the past 6 months

Participants enjoyed the interactive session with PP Winnie Yeung in Chairmanship Training on 1 April

Fast-Track Workshop: We took the lead to pioneer the very first fast-track workshop within JCI Hong Kong! It was successfully held on 25 January in which trainees had both JCI Achieve and JCI Impact courses on the same day. Head Trainer Past President Winnie Yeung and first time Head Trainer Vice President Rosanna Wong brought great training experience to close to 30 participants on the date.

Chairmanship Workshop: Be a Charming Chairman: Co-organised with JCI Harbour, the course was well-attended by over 30 members! Held in early April, the workshop was conducted by Past President Winnie Yeung and Past President Senator Cynthia Wong who shared a great deal about leadership styles and skills on team management. We received much positive feedbacks and participants showed interest in the workshop.

April Fellowship Gathering: Dining in Style: Jointly organised with JCI Bauhinia, it was the first-ever collaboration between the two female chapters! The event attracted close to 60 participants including NOM officers, LOM Presidents as well as members from different chapters. We are honoured to have JCI Bauhinia Past President Carrie Lai to share with us her expertise.

Train-the-Trainer programme (TTT)

On 30 and 31 May, 8 star trainers including Jayceettes, ex-Jayceettes and professional JCI and non-JCI trainers, as well as 25 trainees gathered for an Avenger Mission- letting more Hong Kong Jayceettes members and the public who are interested in training up themselves to not only get trained but be given the opportunities to inspire others in public, and such opportunity was one-of-a-kind. Our deepest gratitude goes to head trainer Senator Joseph Ho, trainers Senator Beatrice Kwong, Senator Eric Lin, Senator Eva Lum, Mr. Talis Wong, Ms. Ivy Cheung, Mr. Benson Hong and our member Wendy So. Most importantly, thank you for the participation of the first group of trainees who make history together for the first Train the Trainer course in Hong Kong Jayceettes.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PAST 6 MONTHS

Meeting up with friends, new and old, the International Affairs team, travel around the world to get inspiration for the betterment of the community and personal growth. Through ASPAC, World Congress and more, we provide members with opportunities to learn about JCI and other great leaders on an international level. Let's come with us to check out our fruitful journey in the first half of 2015.

A pre-ASPAC visit at KK Sabah was conducted in December 2014. President Naomi Chan, Honorary Treasurer Vicky Chan, International Affairs Director Carmen Mak and member Tracy Lau were the representatives of JCI Hong Kong Jayceettes and they were warmly received 2014 Area Sabah National Executive Vice President Soon Boon Kit, 2014 JCI Kota Kinabalu President Jeff Lu and 2015 JCI Kota Kinabalu President Brandon Tang. During the trip, we tried our best to seek the possible places for accommodation for members in the coming ASPAC trip. For fun and for work, we had a great time in the beach and shot a short video for ASPAC promotion which highlighted some of the best sceneries and cuisines in Sabah.

As the name of ASPAC destination Sabah originates from the presence of 'pisang saba', a type of banana, found on the coasts of the region, the team came up with the idea of 'Sabah (Banana) Smile', which became the plot line in the promotional video and the theme in the February Fellowship Gathering on 7 February 2015.

Giving is more blessed— First Courtesy Visit in the past 5 years

JCI Hong Kong Jayceettes, being an organization which encourages young leaders to be active citizens, has been realizing its goal in serving the community.

This year, the Community Development Area visited Siu Sin Nursing Centre (兆善護老中心), which is located at Sham Shui Po on Saturday, 14 March 2015, serving around 45 elderly people. The team with 27 JC members and volunteers shared the common vision in serving the community with a better understanding of those in need. Like Siu Sin, we believe that the elderly should be well respected, treated well and taken good care of when they retired.

During the courtesy visit, we chatted and sang with the elderly, and also delivered "Fook" pocket of socks, towels, biscuits, drinks and scarf to them. We collected a donation of $3,200 from our members and it was used for buying gifts for the elderly, and the surplus were saved for our next courtesy visit.

This visit was held successfully with the involvement of members, volunteers and the hard working organizing committee. But it was just a kick-off and more will be held in the coming future.

Jayceettes singing to the elderly

We would like to thank the following members for their generous donations to this courtesy visit: Past President Senator Anita Kwan, Member Shirley Wong, Senator Eliza Pang, Member Cosina Chan, Member Betty Chan, Past President Senator Florence Wong, Senior Member Club Chairman Senator Petula Wong, Member Connie Lok, Senator Rebecca To and Past President Senator Margaret Wu.

Welcome to our Family!

Sandy Luen

Working as a Merchandiser in garment field after I was graduated from school, I am always busy for work that makes me lose the most private time. One day, I realized that the work-life balance is very important to help me maintain healthy life and release from pressure. Then, I want to do more to explore my other interests and make more new friends. Through my best friend, I knew about JCI Hong Kong Jayceettes and join as a member, it enables me learn some skills through participating in different projects.

Valen Ng

"I love that JCI is leading a global network of young active citizens because I love the idea that I will meet peers from different corners of the world and work together to better our communities and ourselves.

I have met some good friends and embarked on several eye opening opportunities with my involvement so far. Look forward to continuing to explore my interests and passions with this group of passionate girls!"

Mabel Kan

Joining JCI is an unprecedented experience which enables me to get in touch with talents from different sectors. This experience is a gift for me. I have been longing to expand my social circle as well as trying my hand at organizing functions. JCI is a marvellous platform for me to achieve both purposes. JCI Hong Kong Jayceettes is also an ideal place to establish sisterhood!

Elizabeth Lam

Having known JCI by chance is luck. This is a platform which offers us opportunities to explore the world and re-discover ourselves. By participating various events, we can make friends from all walks of life. By working projects together, we can exchange ideas and think out of box.

'The Best way to predict the future is to create it.'—Peter Drucker

Let's join hands to build our fruitful future. Have fun!

Samantha Kong

A social entrepreneur and an environmental engineer – Recently graduated from university, my passion for environmental literacy and international relations brought me to work at the United Nations Headquarters in New York upon graduation. I learnt about JCI at the JCI Summit at the UN, and joined Jayceettes in Nov 2014, taking up different new roles in various projects. Making positive change in the world, through social entrepreneurship and leadership, is my goal in life.

Extra Miles Beyond Dancing

JCI Movement with Action!

To echo with 100 years of JCI Movement, we designed our limited edition JCI 100th Movement Hoodies. Going forward, we will remind ourselves to set ourselves as examples of active citizen, even in sports, trainings or overseas visits! Don't miss the chance to grab one hoodie and walk the talk!

"His was a life that knew no resentment though he was persecuted far beyond any that we have had to endure. He knew glory and he knew adversity, but he treated them both alike. He was not spoiled by glory nor was he embittered by adversity."—John Armbruster

It was at the tender age of eighteen when Henry Giessenbier started the Herculaneum Dance Club (in 1910) for social reasons. Then in 1915 it became the Young Men's Progressive Civic Association (YMPCA). It is noteworthy that the founder of the Jaycees organization initially took "a step beyond dancing" to involve young men in civic and community affairs. The organization's name was later changed to the Junior Citizens. (The first time "JC's" came into use.), and then became the Junior Chamber of Commerce after affiliating with the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce in 1918.

Giessenbier's desire to serve his community and mankind in general made him the man to be remembered. His ambition was not to be rich, but to be respected. Not only was he successful banker, he was a born leader of the visionary type. His beginning years were devoted to intense study in International Banking and he often remained at the bank until midnight to study bookkeeping and other subjects. His weakening health in the 1920's by no means made him less hardworking. Once he was writing out a Jaycee report en route to the hospital for an operation!

A passionate learner with a wide range of interests from salesmanship to zoology, Giessenbier had self directed studies in a wide variety of fields. One of his favorite subjects was public speaking and he practiced by imitating voice recordings of renowned orators. Despite his undeniable success in secular terms, Giessenbier remained a religious man throughout his life and read his Bible daily before beginning work.

As fairly put by John Armbruster, the founder of JCI's Christianity was "not worn as a badge for public display, but was deep in his heart." The evolution of JCI from a dance club to what it is nowadays is pioneered by a great leader whose faith in God and personality have given meaning and purpose to "dancing", elevating it from a mere social activity to a humanistic level where people dance in rejoice to the music, the international language, of citizenship and brotherhood.
